ADMISSION.

CANDIDATES for admission to the Freshman Class are required to pass a written examination in the following books and subjects :—

Latin Grammar, including Prosody—Harkness, Allen and Greenough, or Andrews and Stoddard.

Harkness's Latin Prose Composition, Part II. to Lesson LXX., or an equivalent.

Cicero—seven orations.

Virgil—the Bucolics, and the first six books of the Æneid.

After 1875 the Georgics will be added.

Sallust—Catilinarian War, or Caesar, four books.

Greek Grammar—Crosby, Hadley, or Goodwin.

Xenophon—Anabasis, three books. After 1875, four books.

Homer—Iliad, two books. After 1875, three books.

Ancient Geography.

Arithmetic.

Algebra—Loomis's, to Quadratic Equations.

Geometry—Loomis's, two books. After 1875, four books.

English Grammar, including Orthography and Orthoepey.

Modern Geography.

The examination in the common English branches will be insisted on with no less strictness than in the Ancient Languages and the Mathematics. Real equivalents will be accepted instead of the text-books named.

Candidates for the Scientific Course are required to pass examination in all the foregoing subjects, except the Greek.

Candidates for higher standing are examined as above, and also in the studies gone over by the class to which they may desire admission. For the particular books in Greek, Latin, or Modern Languages studied by each class, equivalent amounts may be offered from other books in the same language.

The stated times for the examination to begin are 8 o'clock A. M. on Wednesday of the week preceding Commencement, and the last Tuesday of the following vacation (June 30th and September 7th, 1875), and the examination in each case will continue two days. But in special cases candidates may be examined and admitted at other times in the year, excepting that no admission to the Senior Class is allowed later than the beginning of the second term.

Those who apply for examination on the days above named, are required to present themselves punctually at the appointed hour, at Walker Hall.

Before examination, the candidate must exhibit satisfactory testimonials that he sustains a good moral character. If he has been a member of any other College, he will be expected to present a certificate of regular dismission.

No one can be admitted to the Freshman Class until he has completed his fifteenth year; and no one to an advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age.

Information in relation to rooms or boarding places may be obtained by applying to the College Janitor, Lansford Gates, No. 20 North College.

SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

The general course given above in detail is so arranged, that a three-years' Scientific Course is formed by omitting the Greek entirely, and the Latin after the first term of Freshman year, and taking the optional studies in Science and Modern Languages. The degree of Bachelor of Science is conferred on every student who has satisfactorily completed this course.

PARTIAL COURSE.

Members of College, who for ill health or other cause, are unable to pursue the full course for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, are permitted to enjoy the privileges of the Institution, and carry forward only two studies at a time. To such, at the end of their course, a certificate of their attainments will be given on application to the President.

RESIDENT GRADUATES.

Graduates who wish to pursue a more extended course of study in any department, can do so, by making arrangements with the College for that purpose.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts in course, must be graduates of at least three years' standing, and must have spent at least two years in professional and other liberal studies. In ordinary cases they must be recommended by the Faculty.

Graduates entitled to the degree and wishing to obtain it, should send their request to the Faculty with appropriate vouchers, on or before the first day of July.

EXERCISES.

There are either three Recitations, or two Recitations and two Lectures daily, excepting Saturday, when one Recitation is omitted.

There are also weekly rhetorical exercises for each class. The Seniors and Juniors have compositions, original declamations, or debates; the Sophomores and Freshmen written translations, declamations, or compositions. For the declamations preparation is made by private rehearsal before the Professor of Rhetoric or the Instructor in Elocution.

Biblical instruction is given to each class during some portion of every year.

There is public worship in the College Church every Sabbath, and prayers in the Chapel every week-day morning. Every Thursday evening there is preaching or some other religious exercise, which the students are invited, but not required to attend. There are also prayer-meetings regularly on Sabbath evenings, and class prayer-meetings on Saturday evenings.

EXAMINATIONS.

1. Oral examinations of all the classes, at or near the close of each term, on the studies of the term.

2. Written examinations of all the classes, either on the completion of studies, or near the close of each year on the studies of the year.

3. Written examinations of the Senior Class, closing two weeks before Commencement.

A record is kept by the Faculty of the attainments and deportment of every student, and each student's standing on the merit roll is made known to him at the beginning of every year. Information concerning his proficiency and deportment is communicated to the parent or guardian when requested or when deemed necessary.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library and Reading Room are open every day, (Sundays and holidays excepted,) from nine to half-past eleven o'clock, A. M., and from half-past one to four o'clock, P. M. The Libraries of the two Literary Societies are accessible to the members according to regulations of their own, and are open for the delivery of books on Wednesday, from half-past two to half-past three o'clock, P. M., and on Saturday, from half-past one to half-past two o'clock, P. M. The Social Union Reading Room is open every day except Sunday.

SCIENTIFIC COLLECTIONS.

The Cabinets of Natural History consist of large and well-characterized collections for the study of Geology, Mineralogy, Botany, and Zoölogy. A portion of these Cabinets is made up of the following unique collections: The HITCHCOCK ICINOLOGICAL MUSEUM, the SHEPARD COLLECTION OF METEORITES, the GILBERT MUSEUM OF INDIAN ANTIQUITIES, and the NINEVEH MURAL SLABS, CYLINDERS and SEALS. The Cabinets and the Gallery of Art are open to the public each week day, from ten to eleven o'clock, A. M., and from three to four o'clock, P. M., when the custodians will be in attendance.

GALLERY OF ART.

This room, recently finished and furnished, contains a large and carefully selected collection of casts of ancient and modern statuary, and photographs, mounted and under glass, fully illustrating the architecture, sculpture, and painting of Europe.

THE GYMNASIUM.

This building is open during the day-time for voluntary exercise by the members of College; and at an appointed hour each class is required to exercise under the direction of the Professor of Hygiene.

The class exercises are open to the public.

EXPENSES.

The following are the principal necessary expenses, exclusive of vacations :

General Term Bill, $30.00 per term,	$90.00	$90.00
Room Rent in College from $6.00 to $15.00 per term,	18.00	45.00
Room Rent in private houses, per year,	40.00	60.00
Fuel and Lights, from $12.00 to $18.00,	12.00	18.00
Board from $3.50 per week to $5.50, making per year of thirty-eight weeks,	133.00	209.00

By forming clubs, students sometimes reduce their board to about $3.25 per week. At a very few tables $6.00 per week is the price.

The expenses for Room Rent, Fuel and Lights, are estimated on the supposition that two students occupy the same room. For a few choice rooms both in College and in town a higher rent is required.

There are some expenses which result from taxes voluntarily imposed by the classes or societies. These and expenses for furniture, stationery, etc., will vary according to circumstances and the character and habits of the student.

PAYMENTS.

The amount of each term bill must be paid in advance. A bond, with satisfactory surety for the payment of all the College bills must be given by each student to the Treasurer, at the commencement of the term when he enters.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The College has a fund of seventy thousand dollars, the income of which is appropriated to aid young men who are preparing for the Christian Ministry, and need assistance. Meritorious students of this class, to a number not exceeding forty, can receive each a scholarship, which is usually sufficient to cancel the general Term Bill. The same class of students ordinarily obtain from the American Education Society not less than one hundred dollars annually.

Scholarships have been founded by the State of Massachusetts, by individuals, and by College classes. These endowments are intended to assist those who need pecuniary aid, and most of them are designed only for those of superior scholarship. The names of donors, and the annual incomes of their respective gifts, are as follows :

MASSACHUSETTS, three scholarships, forty-five dollars each.

REV. DR. MOORE, the first President of the College, three, one hundred and forty dollars each.

SAMUEL A. HITCHCOCK, of Brimfield, a considerable number, one hundred dollars each.

ASAHEL ADAMS, of North Brookfield, three, forty dollars each.

SAMUEL D. WARREN, of Boston, two, seventy dollars each.

REV. JAMES L. MERRICK, of South Amherst, Class of 1830, one hundred and twenty dollars.

CLASS of 1849, seventy dollars.

CLASS of 1855, seventy dollars.

CLASS of 1857, seventy dollars.

CLASS of 1860, sixty dollars.

CLASS of 1865, seventy dollars.

Several other Class Scholarships have been established in part, the endowments for which are not yet placed in the College treasury.

The incomes from the above scholarships are credited to those to whom they are awarded, and the excess, if any, is paid near the end of the College year. Applications for aid should be made to the President in writing, with a statement of pecuniary circumstances. No one is entitled to a scholarship till he has been in College at least one term.
